Investigation Narrative

Incident: Information

Body Camera: No

Narrative: On April 21, 2026, I received correspondence from Town Administrator Wynn concerning threats the town received via voicemail.

The email, I received had the following header from Wynn: "Angry emails, maybe a threat?"

The first voicemail stated the following:

You've got a new voicemail

From: WIRELESS CALLER + [REDACTED]

To: Front Desk

Received on: Monday, April 20, 2026 5:32:04 AM

PLAY VOICEMAIL

" Yes. I would love it for someone official from the town to call me back and tell me who I get to call and talk to to complain about you wasting my taxpayer money on a surveillance system I didn't authorize or approve. If you're gonna pay that kind of money, you know, without approval, maybe you should fix the potholes on Third Street first. Have a great day. "

The second voicemail stated:

You've got a new voicemail

From: WIRELESS CALLER [REDACTED]

To: Front Desk

Received on: Monday, April 20, 2026 5:34:03 AM

PLAY VOICEMAIL

" But to let it know on the public record that I highly disapprove of the town clerk not putting anything to a vote and ram routing something through. The clerk is a clerk. They're not a policymaker. And when the public wants the city that works for us to have to vote on an item, they're required to allow that. So how do we fire this town clerk that's taking lots of matters into their own hands that are illegal? And we how else are we going to audit the town and then have the auditors audited? You guys need some transparency, and we're gonna come looking at you guys. You cannot keep doing this to this town."

In reviewing the voicemail, I did not find any indication of a direct and/or immediate threat. The situation was found to involve free speech as governed by the 1st Amendment of the US Constitution.

No further investigation will be made for this incident at this time. This case is unfounded.
